To,
The Private Secretary,
His Highness The Maharaja Saheb,
Mysore

Dear Sir,

It is rather very long since I heard anything from you I may remind you my friendly relations existing with H H the late Maharaja Saheb and I have had the privilege of being a guest to H.H in the year 1938 while on a pilgrimage to the sacred Jain tirth Shravenbelgola

I am herewith enclosing a letter for H H the Maharaja Saheb for his kind consideration

The State has always been very kind and regardful for the Jain feelings and has always taken keen interest in protecting the Jain Tirtnas from being polluted by such things as the opening of butchershop etc which are quite against the Jain principles

I hope your goodself too, would also evince your kind interest in this matter and use your benevolent influences to get the license which is being sought after from the Municipal Board to open a butchershop at the Sacred Shravanbelgola refused and cancelled

For this kind act I shall be highly obliged and thankful to you With best wishes,

Yours Sincerely,
Praduman Kumar

SAHARANPUR 6 3 1946

May it please Your Highness,

I have come to know that at Shravanbelgola Dist Hassan (Mysore) an important & sacred place of Jain pilgrimage, efforts are afoot to obtain a license from the Municipal board to open a butcher shop, which in the whole history of the sacred Tirth never did exist beforehand there This would undoubtedly hurt the feelings of the whole Jain community to the utmost throughout the length & breadth of India

Your Highness has always been so benign and generous in extending your full patronage to the Sacred Jain Tirth and guarding against all efforts calculated to grossly hurt the feelings of Jains, who are firm believers in Ahimsa

We have the fullest faith in Your Highness regard for the Jain feelings and it is upon this strength that we approach Your benign Highness to at once issue the necessary orders to stop all such efforts to issue a license to open a butchers' shop or to cancel such a license if already issued, at Shravenbelgola

For this act of kindness the whole Jain Samaj of the whole of India would feel most grateful to Your Highness and so would I

With deepest thanks,

Yours Sincerely,

Praduman Kumar
